

job_description

Job Title: Hyperion Senior Consultant

Location: Sydney, servicing all of Australia and overseas where applicable

Job Focus: Hyperion Planning & Essbase

Remuneration: Based on experience

1 Responsibilities

The responsibilities of this position include:

- Provide Project Management expertise and consulting services;
- Document client Business requirements
- Provide Business / Technical Analyst expertise and consulting services;
- Provide application implementation and configuration services;
- Provide technical advice, configuration and implementation to clients, partners and Taysols;
- Provide pre-sales services;
- Perform professional services for Taysols encompassing the positioning of our offerings and the overseeing of implementations and their requirements;
- Ensure client satisfaction and client reference-ability;
- Work with both on premise and cloud based solutions;
- Work with external consultants and business partners to meet Taysols objectives.

2 Candidate Profile

2.1 Experience

2.1.1 Essential

- 3+ years developing business requirements to fit Hyperion Planning capability;
- 3+ years developing business requirements to fit Essbase capability – both ASO and BSO cubes;
- 3+ years delivering Hyperion Planning and Essbase solutions in an external consulting capacity;
- Demonstrated understanding and/or experience with of cloud based planning offerings;
- Demonstrated realisation of client benefits;

2.1.2 Preferred

- Experience across multiple business sectors (e.g. finance, construction, manufacturing, Insurance, retail, higher education);
- Some pre-sales experience;
- Australian client experience;

- Consulting experience.

2.2 Skills, knowledge and characteristics

2.2.1 Essential

- Expert technical skills in Hyperion Planning and immediately-associated technologies including Essbase;
- Commitment to good governance and an SDLC methodology;
- Unrivalled knowledge of the inner workings of Hyperion Planning, coupled with knowledge of recent developments;
- Practical experience in the capture of data from 3rd party systems and its delivery to 3rd party systems and/or via reports to users;
- Articulate and engaging communicator of Hyperion solutions and best practice approaches to solution development;
- Well-versed in tools used to develop, deploy and manage Hyperion solutions;
- Significant skills in application performance optimisation;
- Australian citizen, permanent resident of Australia or bona fide working visa.

2.2.2 Highly Desirable

- Applicable experience with multiple Performance Management platforms and a solid working knowledge of multi dimensionality;
- Knowledge with regards to reporting i.e. understanding financial reporting formats;
- Understanding of accountancy practices.

2.2.3 Preferred

- Applicable knowledge of ROLAP techniques and methods such as star schemas, indexing and partitioning strategies.

2.3 General skills and personal qualities

- Takes responsibility;
- Primarily focused on the client's business outcomes;
- Can work independently to achieve team goals;
- Attention to detail – exemplified by, for example, spelling, punctuation and diagrammatic clarity; willing to adopt Taysols document presentation style;
- Passion, loyalty, integrity;
- Excellent analytical and problem-solving skills;
- Able to build trust and rapport with clients;
- Assertive but not aggressive, tenacious but not obstinate, persuasive but not ideological.
- Able to prepare and present professional quality proposals and documentation;
- Financial and accounting fluency.